DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc. In the instant case, the Abstract of the Disclosure has several paragraphs. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11 and 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11 and 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 provides for the use of a transmitter, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

5. Regarding claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, the phrase "like the other symbols", in independent claim 1, in line 24, renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "like the other symbols "), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

6. Additionally, claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, recite the limitation "the same fashion as the starting bits", in claim 1, in line 21. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Regarding claims 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, the phrase "like the starting bits", "like the other symbols" in independent claim 2, in lines 8 and 9 respectively, renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "like the"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
